'STOP PRESS'

Congratulations to Geva Mentor who has been voted the world's best netballer in the Guardian world top 10 rankings. Geva, who plays GK for Melbourne Vixens beat Australia's Laura Geitz to the title and was the only British player listed.

England's Jo Harten just missed out on breaking into the top-10 list!

30 year old Geva will shortly be playing in her 100th match for England, having first joined the squad in 2000.

7-16 AUGUST 2015

Are you going to Sydney for the Netball World Cup?

If so, you need to get organised, NOW! England Netball, through its Travel Agent, CSE, have an allocation of a block of seats in the netball arena and these are fast being snatched up – so don't miss out, because we can't get any more and NWC2015 tell us that their official travel agents in Australia and New Zealand are selling them like hot cakes too! Go to the CSE website at www.cseplc.com/netball

All tickets currently come with an accommodation package and are sold in a 'Follow Your Team' package, which includes the semi and final matches. Wednesday 18th February is the cut-off date imposed by NWC2015 when CSE have to return any unsold tickets.

Individual tickets will go on sale to the general public in April 2015.

NWC2015 tell me that initial details of the Draw will be available before Christmas and full details will be available in February.

It would be great to hear from you if you are going down under for the Championship so that the Supporters Club can keep you informed and advise you of any activities planned whilst we are in Sydney.

England took 3rd place in the Fast5 tournament, with an exciting one goal win over Jamaica.
